

OREGON STATE BAR FAMILY LAW CLE PROGRAMS

Each year the Oregon State Bar sponsors the “OSB Family Law Section Annual Conference.” Two other valuable OSB CLEs are “Handling Domestic Relations Cases” [2016] and “Drafting Family Law Documents” [2013].

For a complete list of OSB CLEs, visit <http://www.osbar.org/cle/> and choose “Browse by Practice Area,” > Family and Juvenile Law.

OSB Family Law Section Annual Conference

The faculty members at this CLE are seasoned Oregon family law practitioners with many years of experience. Their knowledge will help you develop a best-practices standard for handling family law cases, while their real-life practice approach allows you to bring home ideas and put them to immediate use.

This conference itself includes a wealth of practical information, including an analysis of current appellate court rulings and review of legislative changes affecting the practice area. Don’t miss the opportunity to meet and talk to some of the best in Oregon family law: judges, lawyers, and staff. This is a CLE that every family law practitioner should attend – whether they are new to the practice of family law or experienced in the field.

Seminar materials typically include updated petitions, motions, and affidavits that reflect recent legislative changes.

Additional forms are available from the March 2013 “Drafting Family Law Documents” CLE. These include:

- Letter to Opposing Party (Form 1-11)
- Certificate of Compliance with ORS 107.080 (sic) [should refer to ORS 107.089] (Form 2-1)
- Response to ... Request for Production of Documents (Form 2-5)
- Petitioner’s Proposed Distribution of Assets and Liabilities¹ (Form 2-12)
- Letter to Division of Child Support (Form 6-3)
- Letter to Life Insurance Company (Form 6-6)
- Notice of Withdrawal of Attorney (Form 6-13)
